Award Citation

Staff Sergeant Bryan E. Campbell made outstanding contributions to Marine Corps aviation while serving as an UH-1Y Weapons and Tactics Crewchief Instructor from 1 May 2008 to 30 April 2009. SSgt Campbell's actions directly influenced the success of the first deployment of the UH-1Y helicopter with the 13th MEU. During this period, SSgt Campbell participated in an H-1 Training and Readiness (T&R) Conference and was responsible for the mass alignment of UH-1Y T&R Manual which included creating tracking codes, a Crewchief Event Matrix, a Training Progression Model, Unit Core Skills Proficiency series conversion and refresher aircrew training requirements. In addition, he attended two Transition Task Force conferences and provided UH-1Y operational after-action reports regarding mission essential equipment performance, maintenance procedure validation, and publication discrepancies. He was responsible for instructing six UH-1Y Crewchiefs and four aerial observers. He instructed 104 syllabus flights, awarded 85 qualifications and 21 designations. SSgt Campbell's steadfast devotion and total dedication to duty reflected great credit upon him, and were in keeping with the highest traditions of Marine Corps aviation.
